Beyond the five-day grace period, if you, the school, trip sponsor, group leader, or school administration cancel your reservation for any reason, The ARTS Educational Tours will base your refund on the schedule below:

The ARTS Educational Tours Recommends:

Student Travel Protection "Cancellation for Any Reason" insurance (CFAR). With the purchase of CFAR, participants may cancel for any reason, any time prior to departure, and receive a full refund less the cost of the protection and any non-refundable fees listed below. To receive a refund under the CFAR insurance program, this coverage must be purchased within 14 days of your initial trip deposit.

Non-Refundable Fees: The non-refundable fees include the cost of the CFAR, other insurance coverage, bank NSF fees, late payment fees, phoned-in payments, fees for auto-pay declined credit card or electronic checks, and trip add-ons (shirts, photos, sweatshirts)

Cancellations: All cancellations must be in writing prior to departure by or on behalf of the participant registered for the trip. Email info@theartsft.com or mail it to The ARTS Educational Tours, 101 E Dominion Dr Suite B, Harlingen, TX 78550.

Refunds: The ARTS Educational Tours will refund monies directly to the trip participant if they are eligible for a refund as outlined in the cancellation sections above. All refunds are only issued to the primary contact and issued using the original form of payment on the account. Refunds will be issued within 30 days of receiving the request.

Trip Price/Fixed Costs: Fixed costs are trip expenses that remain unchanged regardless of the number of trip participants. Fixed Costs may include non-refundable tickets such as theater tickets and airfare, motor coach, nighttime security guards, and guide services. If the trip count falls below the originally budgeted counts set by the group leader, the trip price may be altered to cover the transportation expenses or other fixed expenses.

Fuel Surcharge: The tour package price includes all known surcharges (fuel, taxes, and other fees) known at the time the group contracted with The ARTS Educational Tours. However, given the volatile nature of fuel prices, suppliers (for example, airlines and motorcoach carriers) at times must assess a fuel surcharge which is not known by any party at the time of contracting service. Participants will be informed of any fuel surcharge prior to their final payment due date. No surcharge will ever be assessed after the final payment due date.

It is important to know that The ARTS Educational Tours works closely with all suppliers to eliminate or minimize any surcharges related to fuel, taxes, or fees. We have been able to absorb many small price increases and not pass them back to our travelers once the package price is advertised.

General Provisions: The ARTS Educational Tours is a tour provider that contracts for services on behalf of your group, including transportation, lodging, meals, and attractions. The ARTS Educational Tours reserves the right to change activities, attractions, meals, or hotels at their sole discretion due to availability, vendor issues, or safety reasons. The ARTS Educational Tours will inform the group leader, if changes are made, with as much advance notice as possible. The ARTS Educational Tours does not own or operate vehicles, hotels, restaurants, or attractions included in the tour and therefore cannot guarantee performance or levels of services provided by these vendors or be held responsible for acts or omissions of their organizations, employees or agents. The ARTS Educational Tours cannot provide refunds in the event of delays, cancellations, overbooking, weather, strikes, an act of God, war (whether declared or not), terrorism, civil unrest, or circumstances out of its control. The ARTS Educational Tours has excellent relationships with destination vendors and will work on behalf of your group to request partial refunds if warranted.

Dietary Requirements: The ARTS Educational Tours collects all food allergies as a service to our customers and will forward the group's allergy list to all restaurants. We are not responsible for accommodating any food allergies, dietary requirements, or restrictions. All issues regarding food and drink, including all allergies, or dietary requirements are the sole responsibility of the traveling participant. Many trips use food courts; it will be the responsibility of participants to choose their food selection. Sit-down restaurants: The participant is responsible for informing staff of their allergy requirements.

Eligibility/Drops: The ARTS Educational Tours may drop participants from the trip for lack of payment. To be reinstated after being dropped, you will be charged a reinstatement fee, trip payments must be current, and space on the trip must be available. Space is filled on a first come first serve basis.

- Attending school regularly
- Maintaining an acceptable academic record

Trip Conduct: All students are expected to follow the rules and policies of their school in addition to following the trip rules and instructions provided by the tour director, group leader, and adult chaperones on the tour. Parents/Guardians understand and agree that in a rare case where a student needs to be removed from a trip due to not following rules, disrupting the tour, or becoming a safety risk to other participants, they will incur the expense and responsibilities for transporting the student home.

Photo Consent: At different times throughout the year, schools or school representatives, partners/vendors of schools, and media outlets request permission to film or photograph students in schools. They subsequently publish, broadcast, or use these materials, which often include images and depictions of students, as well as a student's work and accomplishments.
